

Payments Service Overview

This document describes the payments microservice.

The payments service uses MongoDB for order records.

It integrates with Stripe for card processing.

Messaging

Kafka is used as the event bus between services.

All events are serialized using Avro schemas.